

INCLUSIVITY TRAINING

ABOUT US

Inclusivity is at the core of our work. With 20 years of inclusive delivery we have the hands-on experience and practical know-how to best support your team:

- Our award-winning volunteer programme engages over 40 aspiring facilitators termly, offering experience and training in inclusive practice.
- Our Inclusive Resource Packs are accessed hundreds of times every month.
- Our weekly sessions reach over 100 children and young people per term; half of whom have special educational needs or are disabled.
- Our outreach delivery engages hundreds annually in schools, youth clubs, women's refuges, pupil referral units, support groups for refugees and specialist schools.

This is the first time I have engaged passionately in inclusivity in a really positive way in a long while. It's refuelled that there is always more to learn and how to support other people.

Angel Shed role modelled inclusion, not just chatted about it. It's given me new aspiration to do the same; in every meeting, every facilitation, every workshop. They did it so well and didn't make it stuffy or exhausting.

WHAT WE OFFER

Angel Shed's Inclusivity Training is for organisations who are looking to work more inclusively – be that within their staff team, with service users or in approaching work culture.

In this training, we will share practical tools, knowledge, and strategies on inclusive leadership, communication, and language. Incorporating a variety of learning styles, and utilising our background in performing arts, the training is creative, active, and engaging.

Our training is typically accessed by arts organisations, education providers and youth charities. However, the bespoke nature of our offer allows anyone to deepen their understanding and practical approach to inclusivity including customer-facing teams and client-orientated professionals.

We deliver half-day and full-day training sessions with both face-to-face and online options to suit different group sizes and budgets. Included in our offer:

- Free and friendly consultation
- Bespoke planning by an experienced Training Manager
- Training delivery by expert facilitators
- Range of resources to develop and embed learning

The training has made an overwhelmingly positive impact on all the participants. It gave us an opportunity to question but also to explore new solutions! It was run with great energy, plenty of inspirational activities and opportunities to share experiences and learn from Angel Shed's extensive knowledge.

We will interrogate commonly used language and phrases, discussing alternatives in order to be more inclusive, including in regard to disability, race and gender.

POSITIVE BEHAVIOUR SUPPORT

We will learn about inclusive strategies for managing challenging behaviour: exploring triggers, discussing prevention and understanding how we can respond safely and inclusively.

INCLUSIVE RECRUITMENT

We will explore practical approaches to consider when hiring new members of your team in order to reach and support individuals with a diversity of lived experiences.

CURATING INCLUSIVE SPACES

We will explore approaches and considerations for ensuring our working spaces are inclusive for those with a range of disabilities and neurodiversities, including dyslexia, autism and ADHD.

INCLUSIVE COMMUNICATION

We will consider practical approaches to supporting communication: including with those who have English as an additional language, are neurodivergent, or non-speaking.

PREVIOUS CLIENTS

The training was adapted to suit our delivery style and Angel Shed were really conscious of ensuring the elements covered were related to our service delivery.

Emma Chapman

Creative Programme Manager, Spotlight

The training was invaluable for our staff. It gave them a much-needed safe space to discuss the complexities of inclusive practice with the support of experienced Angel Shed professionals. Most importantly the staff were able to leave the session having discovered and formed concrete techniques and strategies to implement.

Timothy Chaundy

Angel Shed did a fantastic job of adapting their content to suit our setting and providing training that was collaborative and experiential for our team of highly experienced facilitators.
